

Extrait du Rhuthmos

<http://rhuthmos.eu/spip.php?article2060>

P. Michon, Elements of Rhythmology. II. From the Enlightenment to the 19th Century

Date de mise en ligne : mardi 8 août 2017

« RYTHMOLOGIES »

Pascal Michon

Elements

Rhuthmos

of

Rhythmology

P. Michon, Elements of Rhythmology. II. From the Enlightenment to the 19th Century, Paris, Rhuthmos, 2017, 320 p.
- ISBN : 979-10-95155-15-7

If you want to BUY THIS BOOK, send us an email to rhuthmos@rhuthmos.eu. You can also buy it online through Amazon or any other commercial website.

- ▶ The recent transformations of the world—the new cycle in which capitalism has entered, the globalization of trade, production and consumption, the spreading of new communication technologies, the growing urbanization and the fluidization of our societies and lives—have triggered a search for new critical tools. It is no coincidence that rhythm has become, since the 1990s, in a growing number of disciplines, both a subject of investigation and a methodological instrument. Its success is so remarkable that it seems now on the verge of becoming a new scientific paradigm, somewhat like system, structure, individual or difference in the second half of the 20th century. But its history and thus the multiple meanings it has been endowed with are still very badly known. Old models of rhythm are still commonly used, while more recent and efficient ones are left aside. This book is the first installment of a series that aims at providing some of the elements of rhythmology we need to better assess the significance of the current scientific change, as well as the ethical and political empowerment it may involve.
- ▶ Pascal Michon is a Professor in Classes Préparatoires aux Grandes Écoles in Paris, a historian as well as a philosopher. He was a member of the Collège International de Philosophie. He has already published several essays on rhythm : Rythme, pouvoir, mondialisation (2005) ; Les rythmes du politique. Démocratie et capitalisme mondialisé (2007) ; Marcel Mauss retrouvé. Origines de l'anthropologie du rythme (2010) ; Rhythmologie baroque. Spinoza, Leibniz, Diderot (2015).